

Treasurer's Notes

Feast of Núr/Light, 3 June 2025

“Each and every believer, undaunted by the uncertainties, the perils and the financial stringency afflicting the nation, must arise and ensure, to the full measure of his or her capacity, that continuous and abundant flow of funds into the national Treasury, on which the successful prosecution of the Plan must chiefly depend.”

-In the handwriting of Shoghi Effendi, appended to a letter dated 30 January 1938 written on his behalf to a National Spiritual Assembly

“...the Guardian would advise your Assembly to continue impressing upon the believers the necessity of their contributing regularly to the national fund, irrespective of whether there is an emergency to be met or not. Nothing short of a continuous flow of contributions to that fund can, indeed, ensure the financial stability upon which so much of the progress of the institutions of the Faith must now inevitably depend. “

-29 July 1935 to a National Spiritual Assembly, published in Bahá'í News, no. 95, October 1935, p. 1

Our Office is thankful to those friends who have been generous and shared stories and other resources with us. Please continue to do so via office.treasurer@bahai.org.uk so that all communities across the UK can continue to benefit from these Notes.
